An initiative to promote travel, peace

It was an evening dedicated to world peace and tourism. Held at Marwah Studio, in the Film City at Noida, the event was organised by the International Chamber of Media and Entertainment Industry (ICMEI) under the leadership of president Sandeep Marwah, the event — Global Media And Tourism Summit — saw participation of over 50 delegates from 25 countries.

"Tourism can only prevail where there is peace. We should bring in a friendly environment to develop world peace and then great tourism will follow," said H.E. Cho Hyun, Ambassador of Republic of Korea to India.

Foreign delegates including former Chief Secretary UP R.K. Bhargava, former DG Ministry of Employment Sharda Prasad, Ambassador Mahesh Sachdev were present at the event, and stressed on the importance of travel and tourism.

The National Federation of Tourism And Transport Co-operatives of India Ltd in association with ICMEI also announced 543 tourism committees to be highlighted.
